MINIMUM AGE FOR CANDIDACY IN SCOTTISH PARLIAMENT AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTIONS

Power to reduce the minimum age for candidacy in Scottish Parliament and local government elections

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make such provision as they consider necessary for the purposes of reducing the age at which a person can be a candidate for an election to the Scottish Parliament or to a local authority to 16.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may modify any enactment.

(3) Regulations under subsection (1) must be accompanied by an explanatory document prepared in accordance with subsections (9) to (11).

(4) Regulations under subsection (1) are subject to the affirmative procedure.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may not lay draft regulations under subsection (1) before the Scottish Parliament unless they have consulted in accordance with subsections (6) and (7).

(6) Before laying draft regulations under subsection (1) before the Scottish Parliament, the Scottish Ministers must consult—

(a) the Electoral Commission,

(b) such other persons as they consider appropriate.

(7) For the purposes of any consultation required by subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) lay before the Scottish Parliament—

(i) a copy of the proposed draft regulations, and
(ii) a copy of the proposed explanatory document referred to in subsection (3),
(b) send a copy of the proposed draft regulations and proposed explanatory document to any person to be consulted under subsection (6), and (c) have regard to any representations about the proposed draft regulations that are made to them within the period of 120 days beginning with the date on which the copy of the proposed draft regulations is laid before the Parliament under paragraph (a).

(8) In calculating any period of 120 days for the purposes of subsection (7)(c), no account is to be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days.

(9) The explanatory document referred to in subsection (3) must—
(a) give reasons for the provisions contained in the proposed draft regulations,
(b) give details of—
   (i) any consultation undertaken under subsection (6),
   (ii) any representations received as a result of the consultation, and
   (iii) the changes (if any) made to the proposed draft regulations as a result of those representations.

(10) Where a person making representations in response to consultation under subsection (6) has not consented to the disclosure of representations, the Scottish Ministers must not disclose them under subsection (9)(b)(ii).

(11) If information in representations made by a person in response to consultation under subsection (6) relates to another person, the Scottish Ministers must not disclose that information under subsection (9)(b)(ii) if or to the extent that—
(a) it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the disclosure of that information could adversely affect the interests of that other person, and
(b) the Scottish Ministers have been unable to obtain the consent of that other person to the disclosure.

(12) Subsections (10) and (11) do not affect any disclosure that is requested by, and made to, a committee of the Parliament charged with reporting on the proposed draft regulations.
