[AS INTRODUCED]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament making provision about social security.

PART 1
PRINCIPLES, CHARTER AND ACCOUNTABILITY

Principles

1 The Scottish social security principles
The Scottish social security principles are—
(a) social security is an investment in the people of Scotland,
(b) social security is itself a human right and essential to the realisation of other human rights,
(c) respect for the dignity of individuals is to be at the heart of the Scottish social security system,
(d) the Scottish Ministers have a role in ensuring that individuals are given what they are eligible to be given under the Scottish social security system,
(e) the Scottish social security system is to be designed with the people of Scotland on the basis of evidence,
(f) opportunities are to be sought to continuously improve the Scottish social security system in ways which put the needs of those who require assistance first,
(g) the Scottish social security system is to be efficient and deliver value for money.

Charter

2 The Scottish social security charter
(1) A Scottish social security charter is to be prepared, published and from time to time reviewed in accordance with sections 3 to 5.
(2) The charter is to set out what should be expected—
(a) from the Scottish Ministers when—
(i) developing social security policy, and
(ii) exercising their functions in the Scottish social security system, and
(b) from the individuals who apply for, and receive, assistance through the Scottish social security system.

(3) The charter is to reflect the Scottish social security principles.

3 Preparing the first charter

(1) The Scottish Ministers are to prepare and publish the charter within 6 months of this section coming into force.

(2) In preparing the charter, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(3) The persons consulted must include individuals who are in receipt of—
   (a) disability living allowance as provided for by sections 71 to 76 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
   (b) personal independence payment as provided for by Part 4 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012,
   (c) severe disablement allowance as provided for by sections 68 and 69 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
   (d) attendance allowance as provided for by section 64 of that Act,
   (e) industrial injuries benefits within the meaning of Part 5 of that Act,
   (f) carer’s allowance as provided for by section 70 of that Act,
   (g) payments under section 138 of that Act in respect of—
      (i) maternity expenses,
      (ii) funeral expenses, and
      (iii) heating expenses.

4 Publication of the charter

The Scottish Ministers are to make the charter publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate.

5 Reviewing the charter

(1) The Scottish Ministers must review the charter—
   (a) within 5 years of its being published in accordance with section 3(1), and
   (b) thereafter, within 5 years of the report of the last review being laid before the Parliament in accordance with subsection (4)(b).

(2) In carrying out a review, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(3) The persons consulted must include individuals who have received assistance through the Scottish social security system.
Social Security (Scotland) Bill

Part 2—Giving of assistance by Scottish Ministers

Chapter 1—Assistance to be given according to determination of entitlement

(4) Following a review, the Scottish Ministers must—
(a) decide whether or not to make any changes to the charter, and
(b) lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out—
   (i) the consultation undertaken in carrying out the review,
   (ii) the reasons for their decision to make changes, or not make changes, to the charter, and
   (iii) (where applicable) a summary of the changes made.

Accountability

6 Annual report

10 (1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers are to—
(a) lay before the Scottish Parliament, and
(b) make publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate, a report on the performance of the Scottish social security system in that year.

15 (2) The report is to contain—
(a) information about the performance of the Scottish social security system in that year, and
(b) a description of what the Scottish Ministers have done in that year to meet the expectations of them set out in the Scottish social security charter.

Interpretation

7 Meaning of “Scottish social security system”
In this Part, “Scottish social security system” means the system for giving individuals assistance—
(a) under Part 2, and
(b) by virtue of regulations made under Part 3.

PART 2

GIVING OF ASSISTANCE BY SCOTTISH MINISTERS

CHAPTER 1

ASSISTANCE TO BE GIVEN ACCORDING TO DETERMINATION OF ENTITLEMENT

8 Duty to give assistance
The Scottish Ministers must give an individual whatever assistance of a type described in Chapter 2 the individual is entitled to be given under a determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance.
9 Meaning of “determination of entitlement”

(1) References in this Part to a determination of an individual’s entitlement to assistance are to a determination made—

   (a) by the Scottish Ministers—

      (i) under section 19, or

      (ii) (following a request for a re-determination) under section 24,

   (b) by the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland—

      (i) under section 29 in an appeal against a determination made by the Scottish Ministers, or

      (ii) (subsequent to such an appeal) under its Tribunals Act powers,

   (c) by the Upper Tribunal for Scotland under its Tribunals Act powers (subsequent to an appeal against, or following a review of, a decision of the First-tier Tribunal), or

   (d) by the Court of Session under its Tribunals Act powers (in an appeal against a decision of the Upper Tribunal).

(2) In this section, “Tribunals Act powers” means powers under Part 6 (review or appeal of decisions) of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014.

10 Later determination supersedes earlier

(1) The latest determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance in respect of a given period or event supersedes any earlier determination insofar as it deals with the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the same period or event.

(2) Accordingly the individual is not entitled, and is not to become entitled, to be given any assistance in respect of that period or event by the earlier determination insofar as it has been superseded.

CHAPTER 2

   (a) the individual is, or was, entitled to a particular type of assistance (other than short-term assistance) under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement,
   (b) that determination has been superseded by a determination under section 19 with the result that the individual—

CHAPTER 3

DETERMINING ENTITLEMENT

Determination by the Scottish Ministers

19 Duty to make determination

The Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a type of assistance described in Chapter 2—

(a) on receiving an application for that type of assistance from the individual, or

(b) when required to do so by regulations under section 35.

20 Application for assistance

(1) An application for assistance must be—

(a) made to the Scottish Ministers in such form, and

(b) accompanied by such evidence, as the Scottish Ministers require.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must publicise any requirements for the time being set under subsection (1).

(3) Once—

(a) an individual has applied for a particular type of assistance in respect of a period or (as the case may be) event, and

(b) the Scottish Ministers have made a determination of the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the period or event, the individual cannot make another application for that type of assistance in respect of the period or event.

21 Withdrawal of application

(1) An individual who has made an application for assistance may request that the Scottish Ministers disregard it.

(2) If an individual requests that an application be disregarded—
   (a) the Scottish Ministers are not to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to any type of assistance on the basis of the application, and
   (b) accordingly, their duty to do so under section 19 ceases to apply.

(3) A request under subsection (1) must be made in such form as the Scottish Ministers require.

(4) The Scottish Ministers must publicise any requirements for the time being set under subsection (3).

22 Notice of determination

Having made a determination under section 19 of an individual’s entitlement to assistance, the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual—

(a) of the determination,

(b) of the reasons for it,

(c) of the individual’s right under section 23 to request that the Scottish Ministers re-determine the individual’s entitlement to the assistance, and

(d) that the individual will have the right under section 27 to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the determination should the Scottish Ministers fail to deal with a request for a re-determination within the period allowed for re-determination.

23 Right to request re-determination

(1) An individual may request that the Scottish Ministers re-determine the individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance after being informed (in accordance with section 22) of a determination by the Ministers of the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance.

(2) A request for a re-determination must be made—
   (a) in such form as the Scottish Ministers require,
   (b) before the end of the period prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must publicise any requirements for the time being set under subsection (2)(a).
24 Duty to re-determine

(1) On being requested under section 23 to re-determine an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must aim to make the determination within the period allowed for re-determination.

(3) If the Scottish Ministers fail to make the determination within the period allowed for re-determination—
   (a) their duty to make the determination ends (but they may still make it), and
   (b) section 26 applies.

(4) If the Scottish Ministers make the determination (whether or not within the period allowed for re-determination), section 25 applies.

(5) The period allowed for re-determination is to be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

25 Notice of re-determination

Having made a determination under section 24 of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual of—

(a) the determination,

(b) the reasons for it, and

(c) the individual’s right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under section 27 against the determination.

26 Notice where re-determination not made timeously

Having failed to make a determination under section 24 of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance within the period allowed for re-determination, the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual—

(a) that the individual’s request for a re-determination has not been dealt with within the period allowed, and

(b) that the individual therefore has the right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the determination under section 19 which prompted the request for a re-determination.

Appeal against the Scottish Ministers’ determination

27 Right to appeal to First-tier Tribunal

(1) An individual may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland—

(a) against a determination under section 24 of the individual’s entitlement to assistance, or

(b) in a case where subsection (2) applies, against the determination under section 19 referred to in that subsection.
(2) This subsection applies where—
   (a) having been informed of a determination under section 19 of the individual’s entitlement to assistance, the individual has made a request for a re-determination under section 23, and
   (b) the Scottish Ministers have failed to make a determination under section 24 in consequence of that request within the period allowed for re-determination.

28 Time for appeal

(1) An appeal under section 27—
   (a) may be made within 31 days of the relevant event without the First-tier Tribunal’s permission,
   (b) may be made more than 31 days after the relevant event only with the First-tier Tribunal’s permission,
   (c) may not be made more than one year after the relevant event.

(2) In subsection (1), “the relevant event” means—
   (a) in the case of an appeal against a determination under section 24, the individual to whom the determination relates being informed of it in accordance with section 25,
   (b) in the case of an appeal against a determination under section 19, the individual to whom the determination relates being informed (in accordance with section 26) that the individual has the right to appeal against it.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may give permission under subsection (1)(b) for an appeal to be made only if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the appeal not having been made sooner.

(4) Where, in fulfilment of their duty under section 25 or 26, the Scottish Ministers send an individual the information mentioned in the section—
   (a) through the postal service to the last known address the Scottish Ministers have for the individual, or
   (b) by email to the email address most recently provided to the Scottish Ministers by the individual for the purposes of this Act, the individual is to be taken to have received the information 48 hours after it is sent unless the contrary is shown.

29 First-tier Tribunal’s power to determine entitlement

In an appeal under section 27 against a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the First-tier Tribunal may—

(a) uphold the determination, or
(b) make its own determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question.
Obtaining information to make determination

30  Obligation to provide information on request

(1) When—

(a) the Scottish Ministers are determining an individual’s entitlement to assistance (whether under section 19 or 24), and

(b) they require further information in order to satisfy themselves about any matter material to the making of the determination, they may request that the individual provide them with the information within such period as they specify.

(2) If the individual fails to provide the requested information by the end of the specified period the Scottish Ministers may, without further consideration, proceed to make the determination on the basis that the individual does not satisfy the eligibility rules prescribed in the applicable regulations (see section 33).

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, the information which the Scottish Ministers may request an individual to provide under subsection (1) includes the results of an assessment, including one which the individual has not undergone at the time the request is made.

31  Duty to notify change of circumstances

(1) The Scottish Ministers may place a duty to notify them about a change in circumstances on a person to whom subsection (3) or (4) applies.

(2) The Scottish Ministers place a duty under subsection (1) on a person by informing the person—

(a) of the changes in circumstances which the person has a duty to notify them about,

(b) of the way in which the person is to notify them, and

(c) that failing to notify them about a change in any of those circumstances in that way may be an offence under section 40.

(3) This subsection applies to an individual who is to be given assistance under section 8 under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

(4) This subsection applies to a person to whom payments are to be made under section 8 by way of assistance to another person under a determination made on the basis that that other person has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

32  Lifting of duty to notify change of circumstances

(1) A duty to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change of circumstances placed on a person under section 31 ceases to apply when—

(a) it is lifted under subsection (2), or

(b) it stops being the case that a change in any of the circumstances to which the duty relates can affect someone’s entitlement to be given assistance under section 8.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may lift a duty placed on a person under section 31 by informing the person that the duty is lifted.
(3) Under subsection (2), the Scottish Ministers may lift a duty as it relates to some or all of the changes in circumstances which the person has a duty to notify them about.

Further provision about determining entitlement

33 Decisions comprising determination

(1) A determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance consists of—

(a) a decision about whether or not the eligibility rules prescribed in the applicable regulations are satisfied in the individual’s case,

(b) if those rules are satisfied, a decision (taken in accordance with the applicable regulations) about what assistance of the type in question the individual is entitled to be given, and

(c) if the determination is to be made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question (see section 34), a decision about what assistance of the type in question the determination is to entitle the individual to be given in the future.

(2) In this section, “the applicable regulations” means the regulations made under the section in Chapter 2 that describes the type of assistance in question.

34 Determination on basis of ongoing entitlement

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—

(a) provide that a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a specified type of assistance is to be made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to that type of assistance (either indefinitely or for a duration specified in the regulations), and

(b) provide for exceptions to any provision made by virtue of paragraph (a).

(2) Regulations making provision by virtue of subsection (1)(a) are also to—

(a) prescribe the time, or times, at which an individual is to become entitled to be given assistance under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement, and

(b) provide that a decision about what assistance the individual is to become entitled to be given under such a determination in respect of any future period is to be taken in accordance with the applicable regulations on the strength of such assumptions as are specified.

(3) In this section—

“the applicable regulations” means the regulations made under the section in Chapter 2 that describes the type of assistance in question, “specified” means specified by regulations under this section.

Determination without application

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that, in such circumstances as the regulations specify, the Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance without receiving an application.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about the information that is to be used, and the assumptions that are to be made, in making a determination when required to do so by regulations under subsection (1).

CHAPTER 4

RECOVERY OF ASSISTANCE GIVEN IN ERROR

Liability

(1) An individual is liable to pay the Scottish Ministers the value of any assistance that was given to the individual as a result of a mistaken decision under section 33(1).

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the individual’s liability under subsection (1) is limited to the difference in value between—

(a) the assistance that was given, and

(b) the assistance (if any) that would have been given had the decision not been mistaken.

(3) If the assistance was given in a form other than money, its value for the purposes of this section is what giving it cost the Scottish Ministers (excluding any administration costs).

(4) For the purpose of this section, a decision is mistaken if—

(a) an error occurred in the making of it, or

(b) while made correctly, it was made on the basis of—

(i) incorrect information, or

(ii) an assumption which proves to be wrong.

Consideration for debtor’s circumstances

(1) This section applies to decisions of the Scottish Ministers about—

(a) whether to seek to recover money owed under section 36, and

(b) the method by which money owed under that section is to be recovered.

(2) In making a decision to which this section applies, the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the financial circumstances of the individual who owes the money (so far as those circumstances are known to the Ministers).

Prescription of liability

(1) Schedule 1 (obligations affected by prescriptive period of five years) of the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973 is amended as follows.

(2) After paragraph 1(b) insert—

“(ba) to any obligation to make payment to the Scottish Ministers arising from section 36 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018.”.
Chapter 5

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), providing information includes making a statement.

(3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months,

(ii) a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or

(a) the person fails to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change in circumstances to which subsection (2) applies as soon as reasonably practicable after it occurs, and

(b) the person knew or ought to have known that the change might result in an individual ceasing to be entitled to assistance, or becoming entitled to less assistance.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), a change in circumstances to which this subsection applies is a change—

(a) which the person has a duty under section 31 to notify the Scottish Ministers about, and

(b) which would, under a determination of an individual’s entitlement, result in the individual ceasing to be entitled to assistance, or becoming entitled to less assistance.

(3) A person is not to be regarded as having notified a change in circumstances for the purpose of subsection (1)(a) unless the person notified the Scottish Ministers about it in the way the Ministers informed the person that such notification is to be given (see section 31(2)(b)).
(4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months,

41 Offence of causing a failure to notify

(1) A person commits an offence if—

(b) developing a relevant disease, or suffering a relevant personal injury, due to the nature of the individual’s employment.
