Jeane Freeman

8 After section 1, insert—

<Recognition of importance of independent advice and advocacy>

(1) In fulfilling their duty under section (Scottish Ministers’ duty to promote take-up)(a), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the role that—

(a) independent advice, and

(b) independent advocacy,

can play in ensuring that individuals are given what they are eligible to be given under the Scottish social security system.

(2) The steps taken by the Scottish Ministers under section (Scottish Ministers’ duty to promote take-up)(b) must include steps in relation to providing, or ensuring the provision of, information about—

(a) independent advice, and

(b) independent advocacy,

for individuals applying for, or receiving, assistance through the Scottish social security system.

(3) For the purposes of this section, advice and advocacy are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.>

Jeane Freeman

9 After section 1, insert—

<Right to advocacy>

(1) Every individual with a mental disorder has a right of access to independent advocacy in connection with the determination of the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system.

(2) It is the duty of the Scottish Ministers to ensure that independent advocacy services are available to the extent necessary for that right to be exercised by the individuals who have it.

(3) In this section—
“advocacy services” means services of support and representation that are made available for the purpose of enabling an individual to whom they are provided to have as much control of, or capacity to influence, the decisions that determine the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system as is, in the circumstances, appropriate.

“mental disorder” has the meaning given in section 328 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003.

(4) For the purposes of this section, advocacy services are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.

Jeremy Balfour

58 After section 1, insert—

<Information and advice>

(1) An individual applying, or considering applying, for assistance through the Scottish social security system is entitled to independent information and advice about in particular—

(a) how to apply to the Scottish Ministers for assistance,
(b) the process for determining an individual’s entitlement to assistance,
(c) the types of assistance to which the individual may be entitled,
(d) income maximisation,
(e) the content of the charter.

(2) The information and advice must be accessible to, and proportionate to the needs of, the individuals to whom it is provided.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must take steps to ensure the availability of information and advice to individuals applying, or considering applying, for assistance.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may delegate the functions set out in this section to another person.

(5) For the purposes of this section, information and advice are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.

Jeremy Balfour

59 After section 1, insert—

<Independent advocacy services>

(1) An individual who has applied for assistance through the Scottish social security system is entitled to independent advocacy services.

(2) On receiving an application for assistance from an individual, the Scottish Ministers are to—

(a) notify the individual of the individual’s entitlement to independent advocacy services,
(b) provide information about independent advocacy services available to the individual.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may delegate a function set out in subsection (2) to another person.
The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about independent advocacy services, in particular—

(a) the type of organisation that may provide such services,

(b) the type of support that may be provided,

(c) the duration of that support.

The Scottish Ministers must ensure that independent advocacy services are adequately resourced and available to individuals applying for assistance.

In this section, “advocacy services” means services of support and representation that are made available for the purpose of enabling an individual to whom they are provided to have as much control of, or capacity to influence, the decisions that determine the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system as is, in the circumstances, appropriate.

For the purposes of this section, advocacy services are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.

Ruth Maguire

After section 1, insert—

<Recognition of importance of inclusive communication

(1) In fulfilling their duty under section (Scottish Ministers’ duty to promote take-up)(a), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the importance of communicating in an inclusive way.

(2) In subsection (1), “communicating in an inclusive way” means communicating in a way that ensures individuals who have difficulty communicating (in relation to speech, language or otherwise) can receive information and express themselves in ways that best meet each individual’s needs.

Mark Griffin

After section 1, insert—

<Income maximisation strategy

(1) The Scottish Ministers must, within one year of this section coming into force, publish a strategy designed to encourage individuals to apply for the social security assistance that they are entitled to be given.

(2) The strategy must set out—

(a) the types of assistance in relation to which the Scottish Ministers are to set a target for the uptake of the assistance,

(b) the target for the uptake of each type of assistance mentioned in paragraph (a),

(c) the target for the uptake in Scotland of all social security assistance.

(3) In preparing the strategy, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(4) The persons consulted must include individuals who have received social security assistance.

(5) As soon as practicable after the strategy has been published under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must lay a copy before the Scottish Parliament.
(6) In this section, “social security assistance” means—

(i) assistance given through the Scottish social security system,

(ii) social security schemes other than those listed in exceptions 1 to 10 in Section F1 of Part 2 of schedule 5 of the Scotland Act 1998.

Mark Griffin

115 After section 1, insert—

<Review of strategy

(1) The Scottish Ministers must review the strategy—

(a) within 2 years of its being published in accordance with section (Income maximisation strategy)(1),

(b) thereafter, within 5 years of the last review.

(2) Following a review, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) set out the progress made within the review period towards—

(i) meeting the target for each type of assistance mentioned in section (Income maximisation strategy)(2),

(ii) meeting the target for the uptake in Scotland of all social security assistance,

(b) publish—

(i) a revised strategy, or

(ii) a statement indicating that they consider that the strategy should not be revised.

(3) Subsections (2) to (4) of section (Income maximisation strategy) apply to a revised strategy as they apply to the strategy published under subsection (1) of that section.

(4) As soon as practicable after a revised strategy has been published under subsection (2)(b)(i), the Scottish Ministers must lay a copy before the Scottish Parliament.

(5) In this section, “review period” means—

(a) the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which the strategy under section (Income maximisation strategy)(1) is published,

(b) in respect of a revised strategy, the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the previous strategy was published.

Mark Griffin

139 After section 1, insert—

<Accessibility of information

(1) Every individual has a right to request and be given, where practicable, the information mentioned in subsection (2) in a form which is accessible to, and proportionate to the needs of, that individual.

(2) The information mentioned in subsection (1) is—

(a) a copy of the charter,

(b) a form to apply for assistance,
(c) a notice of determination,
(d) a form to request a re-determination,
(e) a notice of re-determination,
(f) a form to bring an appeal against a determination,
(g) any guidance issued under, or in connection with, this Act,
(h) any other document which the Scottish Ministers are required to publish in accordance with this Act.

Alison Johnstone

After section 1, insert—

<Right to consideration of entitlement to other assistance
An individual who applies for any type of assistance under this Act has the right to be considered for all other assistance to which, in the opinion of the Scottish Ministers, the individual might be entitled to receive through the Scottish social security system.>

Jeane Freeman

After section 1, insert—

<Restriction of private-sector involvement
Restriction on private-sector involvement in assessments
(1) An individual may not be required, in order to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system, to undergo an assessment of physical condition or mental health that is carried out by another individual who is not acting in the course of employment by a public body.
(2) In subsection (1), “public body” means any of the following—
(a) a Minister of the Crown,
(b) a person established by an enactment,
(c) a body comprised solely of persons described by this subsection,
(d) a body corporate that has no members other than (either or both)—
   (i) persons described by this subsection,
   (ii) persons acting on behalf of persons described by this subsection.
(3) Subsection (1) does not preclude its being made a requirement for being given assistance under the Scottish social security system that an individual be—
   (a) in receipt of, or
   (b) eligible or entitled to receive,
other assistance, despite entitlement to that other assistance depending on the fulfilment of a requirement that subsection (1) would preclude from being imposed in relation to assistance under the Scottish social security system.
(4) In subsection (3), “other assistance” means assistance other than assistance under the Scottish social security system.>
Section 2

Pauline McNeill

141 In section 2, page 1, line 21, at beginning insert <The Scottish Ministers are, by regulations, to set out and from time to time revise>

Pauline McNeill

147 In section 5, page 3, line 7, at end insert <and—

<( ) where they have decided to make changes to the charter, lay before the Parliament draft regulations setting out a revised charter.>
After section 5

Adam Tomkins

61 After section 5, insert—

Effect of the charter

(1) A court or tribunal in civil or criminal proceedings may take the charter into account when determining any question arising in the proceedings to which the charter is relevant.

(2) Breach of the charter does not of itself give rise to grounds for any legal action.>

Mark Griffin

116 After section 5, insert—

Right to social security

Due regard to right to social security

(1) The persons mentioned in subsection (2) must have due regard to the right to social security when—

(a) exercising functions under this Act,

(b) exercising functions under any other enactment which contains provisions exercising the powers provided for in Part 3 of the Scotland Act 2016.

(2) The persons are—

(a) the Scottish Ministers,

(b) any other Scottish public authority.

(3) A court or tribunal must have due regard to the right to social security when—

(a) interpreting the provisions of this Act,

(b) interpreting the scope of any other enactment which contains provisions exercising the powers provided for in Part 3 of the Scotland Act 2016,

(c) called to determine any question relevant to the application of the duty in subsection (1).

(4) In this section and section (Interpreting the right to social security), the right to social security is to be interpreted consistently with the right to social security protected by the Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

(5) For the purposes of this section and section (Interpreting the right to social security), the Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights is the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 2200A (XXI) of 16 December 1966.

(6) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify subsection (5) to take account of any optional protocol to the Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights which the United Kingdom—

(a) has ratified, or

(b) has signed with a view to ratification.>
<Interpreting the right to social security>

(1) Where a person mentioned in section (Due regard to right to social security)(2) is exercising the duty under subsection (1) of that section, the person must take account of—

(a) the General Comments of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, including General Comment 19 (“The right to social security”), adopted on 23 November 2007, and

(b) any concluding observations of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in respect of the United Kingdom’s compliance with the Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.

(2) A court or tribunal determining a question which has arisen in connection with the duty under section (Due regard to right to social security)(1) must take into account—

(a) the General Comments of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, including General Comment 19 (“The right to social security”), adopted on 23 November 2007, and

(b) any concluding observations of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in respect of the United Kingdom’s compliance with the Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, so far as, in the opinion of the court or tribunal, it is relevant to the proceedings in which that question has arisen.

(3) In considering whether the duty in section (Due regard to right to social security)(1) has been discharged, a court or tribunal must have regard to—

(a) the right to progressive realisation of the right to social security consistent with the maximum resources available to the Scottish Ministers,

(b) the core elements of the right to social security identified by General Comment 19 (“The right to social security”),

(c) that the right to social security should be enjoyed without discrimination.

(4) In considering whether the duty in section (Due regard to right to social security)(1) has been discharged, any court or tribunal may have regard to—

(a) any international obligation of the United Kingdom relevant to the right to social security,

(b) any comparative case law on the right to social security.>

Before section 6

<Assistance take-up targets>

(1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations set targets for the take-up of each type of assistance described in Chapter 2 of Part 2.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must ensure that the targets are met.
(3) Regulations under subsection (1) may make provision about data collection.

Section 6

62 In section 6, page 3, line 19, at end insert—

<( ) information about the performance of any body established by the Scottish Ministers for the purpose of exercising functions in the Scottish social security system, and

( ) a description of what any such body has done in that year to meet the expectations of that body set out in the Scottish social security charter.>

Mark Griffin

79 In section 6, page 3, line 19, at end insert—

<( ) information on how assistance provided under this Act has reduced the number of disabled people living in poverty, and

( ) information on the extent to which assistance provided under this Act has reduced the number of disabled people living in poverty.

( ) For the purposes of this Act, a disabled person is considered to be living in poverty if the person’s household’s equivalised net income for the year is less than 60% of median equivalised net household income for the year.

( ) In this Act—

( ) “equivalised”, in relation to household income, means adjusted to take account of variations in household size and composition,

( ) “median equivalised net household income” means the median equivalised net household income for the United Kingdom.>

Mark Griffin

108 In section 6, page 3, line 19, at end insert—

<(c) an assessment of how the Scottish social security system has affected the circumstances of persons living in households whose income is adversely affected, or whose expenditure is increased, because a member of the household has one or more protected characteristics (within the meaning of section 4 of the Equality Act 2010), and

(d) a description of the data for the purpose of monitoring equality of opportunity used in preparing the report.

(3) The first report under this section is to include a plan setting out the Scottish Ministers’ intentions to collect and publish data for the purpose of monitoring equality of opportunity where existing data sources are not sufficient for the preparation of the report.>

After section 6

Jeane Freeman

15 After section 6, insert—
The Scottish Commission on Social Security is established.

The Commission is a body corporate.

Schedule (Scottish Commission on Social Security) makes further provision about the Commission.

Before schedule 1, insert—

Independence

In performing its functions, the Scottish Commission on Social Security is not subject to the direction or control of any member of the Scottish Government.

This paragraph is subject to any contrary provision in this or any other enactment.

Exclusion of Crown status

The Commission—

(a) is not a servant or agent of the Crown, and

(b) does not enjoy any status, immunity or privilege of the Crown.

CHAPTER 2

Powers

The Commission may do anything which appears to it—

(a) to be necessary or expedient for the purposes of, or in connection with, the performance of its functions, or

(b) to be otherwise conducive to the performance of its functions.

Access to information

The Commission—

(a) has a right of access at reasonable times to any relevant information that it may reasonably require for the purpose of performing its functions, and

(b) may require any person who holds or is accountable for relevant information to provide at reasonable times any assistance or explanation that the Commission may reasonably require for the purpose of—

(i) performing its functions, or
(ii) exercising the right conferred by paragraph (a).

(2) In sub-paragraph (1), “relevant information” means information in the possession or under the control of—

(a) any member of the Scottish Government,
(b) a local authority,
(c) any person, or person of such description, as is specified by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1) is subject to any enactment or rule of law that prohibits or restricts—

(a) the disclosure of any information, or
(b) the giving of any assistance or explanation.

CHAPTER 3

PROCEDURE

Committees

5 (1) The Commission may establish committees and sub-committees.

(2) The membership of the Commission’s committees and sub-committees may include (but may not consist entirely of) persons who are not members of the Commission but those persons are not entitled to vote at meetings.

Regulation of procedure

6 The Commission may regulate its own procedure (including quorum) and that of its committees and sub-committees.

Authority to perform functions

7 (1) The Commission may authorise—

(a) any of its members, or
(b) any of its committees or sub-committees, to perform such of its functions (and to such extent) as it may determine.

(2) The giving of authority under sub-paragraph (1) does not—

(a) affect the Commission’s responsibility for the performance of the function, or
(b) prevent the Commission from performing the function itself.

Validity of things done

8 The validity of anything done by the Commission, its committees or sub-committees is not affected by—

(a) a vacancy in its membership,
(b) a defect in the appointment of a member,
(c) the disqualification of a person as a member after appointment.
CHAPTER 4
FINANCE

Remuneration and expenses of members

9 (1) The Commission’s members are entitled to be paid by the Scottish Ministers such—
(a) remuneration, and
(b) sums in respect of expenses incurred in performing their functions as members of the Commission, as the Ministers determine.
(2) In sub-paragraph (1)—
(a) the reference to the Commission’s members includes a person who is not a member of the Commission but is a member of one of the Commission’s committees or sub-committees, and
(b) the reference to performing functions as a member of the Commission, in the case of a person described in paragraph (a), is to be read as though it were a reference to performing the person’s functions as a member of the committee or (as the case may be) sub-committee.

Expenses of non-members

10 (1) A person who attends a meeting of the Commission at its request is entitled to be paid by the Scottish Ministers such travelling and other allowances (including compensation for loss of time) as the Ministers determine.
(2) In sub-paragraph (1) the reference to the Commission includes any of its committees or sub-committees.

Resources

11 The Scottish Ministers are to provide the Commission with such staff and other resources as it requires to carry out its functions.

Accounts and audit

12 (1) The Commission must—
(a) keep proper accounts and accounting records,
(b) prepare in respect of each financial year a statement of accounts, and
(c) send a copy of the statement to the Auditor General for Scotland for auditing.
(2) The Commission must comply with any directions which the Scottish Ministers give it in relation to the matters mentioned in sub-paragraph (1)(a) and (b).

CHAPTER 5
MEMBERSHIP OF THE COMMISSION

Number of members

13 (1) The Commission is to consist of—
(a) a member to chair the Commission, and
(b) at least 2 but no more than 4 other members.
The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend sub-paragraph (1)(b) by substituting a different number for any number for the time being specified there.

Appointment of members

14 (1) The Scottish Ministers are to appoint the Commission’s members.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may not appoint a person who is disqualified from being a member (see paragraph 17).

(3) When appointing members the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the desirability of—

(a) securing that the Commission (taken as a whole) has experience in or knowledge of—

(i) the formulation, implementation and evaluation of social security policies in Scotland and elsewhere in the United Kingdom,

(ii) research in connection with social security, and

(iii) the effect of disability, arising from a physical or mental impairment, on daily life,

(b) having a member with personal experience of having a disability arising from a physical or mental impairment, and

(c) having as members people who have not previously been members.

Tenure and other terms and conditions

15 (1) A person’s membership of the Commission continues until the end of the period of appointment (subject to paragraph 16(1) and (2)).

(2) In sub-paragraph (1), “the period of appointment” means the period specified by the Scottish Ministers on appointing the person as a member.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may not specify a period of appointment that is longer than 4 years, beginning with the day that the appointment takes effect.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph prevents a person from being a member of the Commission for two or more consecutive periods of appointment.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may determine other terms and conditions of membership, in relation to matters not covered by this schedule.

Early termination

16 (1) A member of the Commission may resign by giving notice in writing to the Scottish Ministers.

(2) A person’s membership of the Commission ends if—

(a) the person becomes disqualified from being a member (see paragraph 17), or

(b) the Scottish Ministers give the person written notice that the person is removed from the Commission.

(3) The Scottish Ministers may remove a member of the Commission by virtue of sub-paragraph (2)(b) only if they consider that the member is—

(a) unfit to continue to be a member, or

(b) unable to perform the member’s functions.
Disqualification grounds

17 (1) A person is disqualified from being a member of the Commission if sub-paragraph (2) or (3) applies to the person.

(2) This sub-paragraph applies to a person who is—

(a) a member of the—

(i) Scottish Parliament,

(ii) House of Commons,

(iii) National Assembly for Wales,

(iv) Northern Ireland Assembly, or

(v) European Parliament,

(b) a councillor of any local authority,

(c) a member of the Scottish Government,

(d) a Minister of the Crown,

(e) an office-holder of the Crown in right of Her Majesty’s Government in the United Kingdom,

(f) an office-holder in the Scottish Administration,

(g) a civil servant.

(3) This sub-paragraph applies to a person (subject to sub-paragraph (4)) who is or has been—

(a) disqualified as a company director under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986,

(b) disqualified as a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005,

(c) the subject of a disqualification under a disqualification provision analogous to either of those mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) anywhere in the world.

(4) Sub-paragraph (3) does not apply to a person who is or has been disqualified as mentioned in that sub-paragraph only by—

(a) section 11 of the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 (undischarged bankrupts),

(b) section 69(2)(b) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (which disqualifies undischarged bankrupts from being charity trustees), or

(c) a provision analogous to either of those mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) anywhere in the world.

PART 2
APPLICATION OF LEGISLATION RELATING TO PUBLIC BODIES

<Commission functions

(1) The Scottish Commission on Social Security has the following functions—

(a) to scrutinise legislative proposals in accordance with section (Further procedure for regulations about assistance),

(b) to prepare and submit to the Scottish Ministers a report on any matter, relevant to social security, that the Ministers request the Commission to report on,

(c) to prepare and submit to the Scottish Parliament a report on any matter, relevant to social security, that the Commission is requested to report on by the Parliament after the Parliament has resolved that the request should be made,

(d) to prepare and submit to the Ministers and the Parliament, from time to time, a report containing—

(i) an assessment of the extent to which any or all of the expectations set out in the Scottish social security charter are being fulfilled, and
(ii) recommendations for improvement where the assessment is that those expectations are not being fulfilled,

(e) any functions the Ministers confer on the Commission by regulations.

(2) In performing any of the functions mentioned in subsection (1), the Commission may have regard to any relevant international human rights instruments (see also section (Further procedure for regulations about assistance)(4)).

(3) The Commission must make publicly available by such means as it considers appropriate any report that it prepares in pursuance of a function mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) The Commission must consider preparing a report under subsection (1)(d) if it receives evidence which suggests that expectations set out in the charter are frequently not being fulfilled.

(5) In subsection (2), “international human rights instruments”—

(a) means any international convention, treaty or other international instrument ratified by the United Kingdom, subject to—

(i) any amendments in force in relation to the United Kingdom for the time being, and

(ii) any reservations, objections or interpretative declarations by the United Kingdom for the time being in force, and

(b) includes, in particular, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 2200A (XXI) of 16 December 1966.

Jeane Freeman

18 After section 6, insert—

<Charter-based complaints

(1) The Scottish Ministers are to make regulations conferring on a person the function described in subsection (2).

(2) The function is investigating any complaint alleging a failure by the Scottish Ministers, in dealing with an individual’s case, to meet the expectations of them set out in the Scottish social security charter.

(3) Regulations under this section may modify any enactment (including this Act).>

148 After section 6, insert—

<Annual feedback survey

(1) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, carry out a survey of individuals who have applied for assistance through the Scottish social security system in that financial year.
The survey is to seek information about—
(a) the extent to which the determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance met the expectations set out in—
   (i) the Scottish social security principles,
   (ii) the Scottish social security charter,
(b) the individual’s experience of the process of determining the individual’s entitlement to assistance,
(c) the effectiveness and appropriateness of the assistance received (where relevant),
(d) the quality and effectiveness of the advice and information received in support—
   (i) of the individual’s application for assistance, and
   (ii) at all stages of the determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance, and
(e) any other matters relevant to the individual’s application for assistance.

The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as practicable after completing the carrying out of the survey under subsection (1)—
(a) lay the survey before the Scottish Parliament, and
(b) make the survey publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate.

Mark Griffin

After section 6, insert—

<Independent review of the Act

(1) The Scottish Ministers must make provision for an independent review of this Act to be carried out—
   (a) not later than 3 years after the day on which Part 1 of this Act comes into force, and
   (b) thereafter, at least once in each subsequent period of 5 years.

(2) Not later than 1 year after the day on which a review under subsection (1) has been completed, the person carrying out the review must lay a report on the conclusions of the review before the Scottish Parliament.

(3) A report under subsection (2) must—
   (a) include an assessment of the effectiveness of the provisions of this Act,
   (b) recommend—
      (i) whether the provisions of this Act should be retained or repealed,
      (ii) what steps are to be taken by the Scottish Ministers as a result of the review.

(4) Not later than 30 days after a report under subsection (2) has been laid before the Scottish Parliament, the Scottish Ministers must lay a response to that report before the Scottish Parliament.

(5) In responding to a report under subsection (2), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the provisions of subsection (3).>

SCOTTISH SOCIAL SECURITY AGENCY

Scottish Social Security Agency

(1) The Scottish Social Security Agency is established.

(2) The Agency is to carry out the functions related to social security conferred on the Scottish Ministers by this Act and any other enactment.

(3) The Agency must, in exercising its functions under this Act and any other enactment, have regard to the Scottish social security principles.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about—

(a) the functions of the Agency,

(b) the status and structure of the Agency,
(c) any such further provision as the Scottish Ministers may consider necessary and expedient to establish the Agency,
(d) any such further provision as the Scottish Ministers may consider necessary and expedient to support the management and operation of the Agency.

(5) The Agency must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year—

NEW BENEFITS

Power to create new benefits

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision for a scheme which provides assistance for social security purposes to be given to or in respect of individuals providing that the conditions in subsection (2) are met.

(2) The conditions are that the scheme—

(a) is supported from sums paid out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund,

(b) does not fall within exceptions 1 to 9 of Section F1 of Part 2 of schedule 5 of the Scotland Act 1998, and

(c) is not connected with reserved matters.

(3) In subsection (2)(a), the reference to a scheme “supported from sums paid out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund” does not include a scheme—

(a) in respect of which sums are at some time paid out of the Scottish Consolidated Fund, but to decide whether, for the purpose of section 23(2C)(b), an individual has a good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner.

(b) which is directly supported from payments out of the Consolidated Fund, the National Insurance Fund or the Social Fund, or out of money provided by Parliament.

(2) Having made a decision under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual concerned—
   (a) of the decision, and
   (b) if the decision is that the individual has no good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner, of—
      (i) the reasons for the decision, and
      (ii) the individual’s right to appeal under subsection (3).

(3) An individual may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a decision by the Scottish Ministers that the individual has no good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner.

(4) An appeal under subsection (3)—
   (a) may be made without the First-tier Tribunal’s permission within 31 days of the individual being informed (in accordance with subsection (2)) of the Scottish Ministers’ decision,
   (b) may be made more than 31 days after the individual is so informed only with the First-tier Tribunal’s permission,
   (c) may not be made after the end of the day that falls one year after the day on which the individual is so informed.

(5) The First-tier Tribunal may give permission under subsection (4)(b) for an appeal to be made only if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the appeal not having been made sooner.
A decision by the First-tier Tribunal about—
(a) the outcome of an appeal under subsection (3), or
(b) whether to give permission under subsection (4)(b) for an appeal to be made, is final.

Accordingly (and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (6)), any such decision by the First-tier Tribunal may be neither—

Where it appears to the Scottish Ministers that an individual who has applied for a particular type of assistance may be entitled to another type of assistance described in Chapter 2, the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual—

(a) that the individual may be entitled to another type of assistance,
(b) of the other type of assistance to which the individual may be entitled, and
(c) that a further application is required to be made in order that a determination may be made in respect of that other type of assistance.>

<(4) In this section and section (Exclusion from overpayment liability)—
(a) references to an error include a decision under section 33(1) being made—
   (i) wrongly, or
   (ii) correctly but on the basis of—
      (A) incorrect information, or
      (B) an assumption which proves to be wrong.
(b) references to giving assistance in error include giving assistance as a result of an error of the kind described in paragraph (a).>

43 After section 36, insert—

<Exclusion from overpayment liability

(1) An individual has no liability under section 36(1) in respect of assistance given in error if the error is neither—
   (a) the individual’s fault, nor
   (b) the kind of error that an individual could reasonably be expected to notice.

(2) For the purpose of this section, an error is an individual’s fault if it is caused or contributed to by the individual—
   (a) providing false or misleading information,
   (b) failing to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change in circumstances in breach of a duty to do so under section 31, or
   (c) causing another person to do either of those things.

(3) In considering whether an error is of a kind that an individual could reasonably be expected to notice, the following are amongst the matters to which regard is to be had—
   (a) the extent to which the value of the assistance given in error exceeds the value of the assistance that would have been given (if any) had the error not been made,
(b) whether any information given to the individual by the Scottish Ministers prior to, or immediately after, the assistance being given would have alerted a reasonable person to the fact that a decision had been, or was to be, made on the basis of incorrect information or a wrong assumption.

(4) In—

(a) subsection (2)(a), the reference to providing information includes making a statement,

(b) subsection (3)(b), the reference to information given to the individual by the Scottish Ministers does not include information explaining why the Ministers consider the assistance to have been given in error.>

After section 38

Jeane Freeman

44 After section 38, insert—

<Exclusion of other rights of recovery>

(1) An individual given assistance in error has no non-statutory obligation based on redress of unjustified enrichment to pay the value of that assistance to the Scottish Ministers.

(2) In subsection (1)—

(a) “non-statutory obligation” means an obligation that arises from a rule of law rather than an enactment,

(b) the reference to assistance being given in error is to be construed in accordance with section 36(4).>

45 After section 38, insert—

<Funeral expense assistance>

Liability of deceased’s estate

(1) The value of funeral expense assistance given in connection with an individual’s funeral is to be treated as a funeral expense that the individual’s estate is liable to pay the Scottish Ministers.

(2) If the assistance was given in a form other than money, its value for the purposes of this section is what giving it cost the Scottish Ministers (excluding any administration costs).>

<CHAPTER

UPRATING FOR INFLATION

Duty to consider effects of inflation

(1) Before the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must—
   (a) calculate the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure,
   (b) prepare a report that complies with subsection (2),
   (c) lay a copy of the report before the Scottish Parliament, and
   (d) make the report publicly available by such means as the Ministers consider appropriate.

(2) A report prepared under subsection (1)(b) complies with this subsection if it—
   (a) states what the Scottish Ministers have most recently calculated to be the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure,
   (b) explains how the Ministers calculated the inflation-adjusted levels, and
(c) states what (if anything) the Ministers have done, or intend to do, in light of their calculations and their reasons for that decision.

(3) In this section, “relevant figure” means a figure prescribed in regulations under any section in Chapter 2 as the value, or part of the value, of the assistance that is to be given to an individual.

(4) The inflation-adjusted level of a figure prescribed in regulations is to be calculated for the purposes of this Chapter as follows—

$$ f \times \left( 1 + \frac{i}{100} \right) $$ where—

- $f$ is the figure prescribed, and
- $i$ is the number of percentage points which the Scottish Ministers consider reflects the change in the general level of relevant prices since a copy of a report was last laid before the Scottish Parliament under subsection (1)(c).

(5) It is for the Scottish Ministers to decide what prices are “relevant prices” in terms of subsection (4).

(6) For the purposes of preparing the first report under subsection (1)(b), the reference in subsection (4) to the last time a copy of a report was laid before the Scottish Parliament is to be read as a reference to the date on which the figure in question was prescribed.

Jeane Freeman

48 After section 44, insert—

<Duty to uprate disability and employment-injury assistance>

(1) Before the end of each financial year, having calculated in accordance with section (Duty to consider effects of inflation) the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure prescribed in—

(a) the disability assistance regulations, and

(b) the employment-injury assistance regulations,

the Scottish Ministers must bring forward legislation to replace any relevant figure prescribed in those regulations which is, in their opinion, materially below its inflation-adjusted level with a figure of at least that level (subject to any rounding they think appropriate).

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), bringing forward legislation means laying before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing disability assistance regulations and employment-injury assistance regulations.

(3) If the Scottish Parliament approves a draft instrument laid before it by the Scottish Ministers in fulfilment of their duty under subsection (1), the Ministers must make the regulations contained in the draft instrument.

(4) In this section—

“disability assistance regulations” means regulations under section 14,

“employment-injury assistance regulations” means regulations under section 16,
“relevant figure” is to be construed in accordance with section (Duty to consider effects of inflation)(3).>

(1) Subject to the provisions of regulation 23 of the 1987 Regulations, the Scottish Ministers must make a payment (a “child benefit supplement”) of—

(a) £5 to a qualifying individual where the qualifying individual has elected to receive child benefit payment weekly in accordance with the provisions of Schedule 8 of the 1987 Regulations,

(b) £20 to a qualifying individual where the qualifying individual receives child benefit payment in the last week of each successive period of four weeks of the period of entitlement (as set out in regulation 23(1)(b) of the 1987 Regulations).

(2) A payment under subsection (1) must be made to the qualifying individual when that individual receives child benefit.

(3) A qualifying individual is an individual who, on the qualifying date, was—

(a) in receipt of child benefit under section 141 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, and

(b) resident in Scotland.

(4) The qualifying date is a date determined by the Scottish Ministers falling within the period to which the payment relates.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify this section so as to modify—

(a) the amounts to be paid to qualifying individuals under subsections (1)(a) and (b),

(b) who is a qualifying individual for the purposes of this section.

(6) For the purposes of this section, “the 1987 Regulations” means the Social Security (Claims and Payments) Regulations 1987.>

UPRATING OF ASSISTANCE

Uprating framework regulations

(1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations make provision about the procedure for ensuring that assistance given to an individual—

(a) under Chapter 2 of Part 2,
(b) by virtue of regulations under Part 3,

retains its value in relation to the general level of prices.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) must set out in particular—

(a) the method by which the Scottish Ministers are to estimate the general level of prices,
(b) the method by which the Scottish Ministers are to assess whether each type of assistance has retained its value,
(c) the type of assistance which is to be assessed,
(d) the frequency with which each type of assistance is to be assessed,
(e) the process by which the Scottish Ministers are to report to the Scottish Parliament on the outcome of the assessment.>

Mark Griffin

134 After section 48, insert—

<Uprating framework regulations: procedure>

(1) The Scottish Ministers may not make regulations under section (Uprating framework regulations) unless—

(a) they have consulted in accordance with section (Uprating framework regulations: consultation),

(b) following that consultation, they have laid before the Scottish Parliament—

(i) draft regulations, and

(ii) an explanatory document prepared in accordance with subsection (2), and
(c) the draft regulations have been approved by resolution of the Parliament.

(2) The explanatory document referred to in subsection (1)(b)(ii) must—

(a) introduce and give reasons for the regulations, and

(b) give details of—

(i) the consultation undertaken under section (Uprating framework regulations: consultation),

(ii) any representations received as a result of the consultation,

(iii) the changes (if any) made to the proposed draft regulations as a result of those representations.

Mark Griffin

135 After section 48, insert—

<Uprating framework regulations: consultation>

(1) Where the Scottish Ministers propose to make regulations under section (Uprating framework regulations) they must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(2) For the purposes of any consultation required by subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) lay before the Scottish Parliament—

(i) a copy of the proposed draft regulations, and

(ii) a copy of the proposed explanatory document referred to in section (Uprating framework regulations: procedure)(1)(b)(ii),

(b) make available a copy of the proposed draft regulations and proposed explanatory document to any person to be consulted under subsection (1), and

(c) have regard to any representations about the proposed draft regulations that are made to them within 60 days of the date on which the copy of the proposed draft regulations are laid before the Parliament under paragraph (a).

(3) In calculating any period of 60 days for the purposes of subsection (2)(c), no account is to be taken of any time during which the Parliament is dissolved or is in recess for more than 4 days.

(4) If, as a result of any consultation required by this section, it appears to the Scottish Ministers that it is appropriate to change the whole or any part of their proposals, they must undertake further consultation with respect to the changes as they consider appropriate.

Mark Griffin

136 After section 48, insert—

<Uprating regulations>

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations increase the amount payable of a type of assistance—

(a) under Part 2,

(b) by virtue of regulations under Part 3,
in order to retain the value of the assistance in relation to the general level of prices, providing that the conditions in subsection (2) are met.

(2) The conditions are—

(a) that regulations under section (Uprating framework regulations) have been made,

(b) that the Scottish Ministers have complied, as appropriate, with the procedure set out in regulations under section (Uprating framework regulations).

After section 53

Alison Johnstone

2 After section 53, insert—

PART

ANNUAL UPRATING OF ASSISTANCE

Annual uprating of assistance

(1) The Scottish Ministers are to review each tax year the amount given in respect of each type of assistance provided—

(a) under Part 2,

(b) by virtue of regulations made under Part 3, in order to determine whether the assistance has retained its value in relation to the general level of relevant prices.

(2) Where it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the general level of relevant prices is greater at the end of the period under review than it was at the beginning of that period, the Scottish Ministers must by regulations make provision—

(a) which increases the amount payable of each type of assistance by a percentage not less than the percentage by which the general level of relevant prices is greater at the end of the period than it was at the beginning,

(b) which states the type of assistance in respect of which an increase has not been made.

(3) Where subsection (2)(b) applies in relation to a type of assistance, the Scottish Ministers must provide a statement setting out the reason for this.

(4) Where it appears to the Scottish Ministers that the general level of relevant prices is no greater at the end of the period under review than it was at the beginning of that period, the Scottish Ministers may, if they consider it appropriate having regard to the economic situation in Scotland and any other matters which they consider relevant, make regulations which increase by such a percentage or percentages as they think fit any type of assistance provided for under this Act.

(5) The Scottish Ministers may, in providing for an increase in accordance with subsection (2) or (4), adjust the amount of the increase so as to round any amount up or down to such extent as they think fit.

(6) For the purposes of any review under this section, the Scottish Ministers may estimate the general level of relevant prices in such as manner as they consider appropriate.

(7) Regulations under this section must specify the date on which the increase is to take effect.
(8) In this section—

(a) the “period under review” means—

(i) in respect of the first review, the period of 12 months beginning with a day determined by the Scottish Ministers,

(ii) in respect of each subsequent review, the period of 12 months beginning with the day of the previous review,

(b) “relevant” in relation to the general level of prices means the general level of prices relevant to the particular type of assistance.

<Further procedure for regulations about assistance>

(1) This section applies (subject to subsection (9)) in relation to regulations under—

(a) any section in Chapter 2 of Part 2, and

(b) section 45.

(2) Where the Scottish Ministers propose to make regulations to which this section applies, they must (before laying a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing such regulations before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution)—

(a) inform the Scottish Commission on Social Security of their proposals,

(b) notify the Scottish Parliament that they have done so, and

(c) make their proposals publicly available by such means as the Ministers consider appropriate.

(3) Having been informed of the Scottish Ministers’ proposals, the Commission must prepare a report setting out its observations and recommendations in relation to the proposals.

(4) In preparing its report, the Commission—

(a) must have regard to—

(i) the Scottish social security principles, and

(ii) any relevant international human rights instruments (as defined in section (Commission functions)(5)), and

(b) may consult any persons it considers appropriate.

(5) If the Commission’s members are unable to agree the terms of its report unanimously, the report must set out the matters over which members differ.

(6) Having prepared its report, the Commission must—

(a) submit a copy of the report to—

(i) the Scottish Ministers, and

(ii) the Scottish Parliament, and
(b) make the report publicly available by such means as the Commission considers appropriate.

30 (7) When laying a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations to which this section applies before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution, the Scottish Ministers must also lay before the Parliament either—

(a) a response to the Commission’s report on the proposals for the regulations, or

(b) a statement explaining why the Ministers consider it appropriate to lay the draft instrument before the Parliament before the Commission has submitted its report on the proposals for the regulations.

35 (8) The response mentioned in subsection (7)(a) must, in particular, give details of—

(a) how (if at all) the regulations differ from the proposals,

(b) how the Scottish Ministers have sought to address the observations and recommendations contained in the Commission’s report, and

(c) any observations or recommendations contained in the report that the Ministers disagree with and have not sought to address.

40 (9) This section does not apply in relation to regulations—

(a) made only for the purpose of the consolidation of earlier regulations, or

(b) that give effect to proposals that fall within a description that the Commission has, by written notice to the Scottish Ministers and the Scottish Parliament, stated that the Commission does not consider it necessary to be informed about under subsection (2).>

<Temporary disapplication of section (Further procedure for regulations about assistance)>

(1) Section (Further procedure for regulations about assistance) does not apply in relation to regulations under section 15 or 17 that are brought forward before the date specified by the Scottish Commission on Social Security.

(2) The Commission specifies a date under subsection (1) by giving written notice to—

(a) the Scottish Ministers, and

(b) the Scottish Parliament, informing them of the date from which the Commission will be ready to perform its function of scrutinising legislative proposals in accordance with section (Further procedure for regulations about assistance).

(3) In subsection (1), “brought forward” means contained in a draft Scottish statutory instrument that is laid before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution.

(4) At any time after the date specified by the Commission under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers may by regulations repeal this section.>
