PART 1
TENETS AND OVERSIGHT

Principles

1 The Scottish social security principles
The Scottish social security principles are—
(a) social security is an investment in the people of Scotland,
(b) social security is itself a human right and essential to the realisation of other human rights,
(ba) the delivery of social security is a public service,
(c) respect for the dignity of individuals is to be at the heart of the Scottish social security system,
(ca) the Scottish social security system is to contribute to reducing poverty in Scotland,
(e) the Scottish social security system is to be designed with the people of Scotland on the basis of evidence,
(f) opportunities are to be sought to continuously improve the Scottish social security system in ways which—
(i) put the needs of those who require assistance first, and
(ii) promote the goals of equality and non-discrimination,
(g) the Scottish social security system is to be efficient and deliver value for money.

1A Effect of the principles
(1) A court or tribunal in civil or criminal proceedings may take the Scottish social security principles into account when determining any question arising in the proceedings to which the principles are relevant.
(2) Breach of the principles does not of itself give rise to grounds for any legal action.
Scottish Ministers’ duty to promote take-up

1B Scottish Ministers’ duty to promote take-up

The Scottish Ministers must—

(a) keep under consideration what steps they could take to ensure that individuals are given what they are eligible to be given under the Scottish social security system,

and

(b) if the Ministers consider it appropriate to do so, take any of the steps identified by that consideration.

1C Recognition of importance of inclusive communication

10 (1) In fulfilling their duty under section 1B(a), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the importance of communicating in an inclusive way.

(2) In subsection (1), “communicating in an inclusive way” means communicating in a way that ensures individuals who have difficulty communicating (in relation to speech, language or otherwise) can receive information and express themselves in ways that best meet each individual’s needs.

1D Accessibility of information

(1) Every individual has a right to request and be given, where practicable, the information mentioned in subsection (2) in a form which is accessible to, and proportionate to the needs of, that individual.

(2) The information mentioned in subsection (1) is—

(a) a copy of the charter,

(b) a form to apply for assistance,

(c) a notice of determination,

(d) a form to request a re-determination,

(e) a notice of re-determination,

(f) a form to bring an appeal against a determination,

(g) any guidance issued under, or in connection with, this Act,

(h) any other document which the Scottish Ministers are required to publish in accordance with this Act.

1E Recognition of importance of independent advice and advocacy

(1) In fulfilling their duty under section 1B(a), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the role that—

(a) independent advice, and

(b) independent advocacy,

can play in ensuring that individuals are given what they are eligible to be given under the Scottish social security system.

(2) The steps taken by the Scottish Ministers under section 1B(b) must include steps in relation to providing, or ensuring the provision of, information about—
(a) independent advice, and
(b) independent advocacy,
for individuals applying for, or receiving, assistance through the Scottish social security system.

(3) For the purposes of this section, advice and advocacy are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.

1F Information and advice

(1) An individual applying, or considering applying, for assistance through the Scottish social security system is entitled to independent information and advice about in particular—
(a) how to apply to the Scottish Ministers for assistance,
(b) the process for determining an individual’s entitlement to assistance,
(c) the types of assistance to which the individual may be entitled,
(d) income maximisation,
(e) the content of the charter.

(2) The information and advice must be accessible to, and proportionate to the needs of, the individuals to whom it is provided.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must take steps to ensure the availability of information and advice to individuals applying, or considering applying, for assistance.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may delegate the functions set out in this section to another person.

(5) For the purposes of this section, information and advice are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.

1G Right to advocacy

(1) Every individual with a mental disorder has a right of access to independent advocacy in connection with the determination of the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system.

(2) It is the duty of the Scottish Ministers to ensure that independent advocacy services are available to the extent necessary for that right to be exercised by the individuals who have it.

(3) In this section—
“advocacy services” means services of support and representation that are made available for the purpose of enabling an individual to whom they are provided to have as much control of, or capacity to influence, the decisions that determine the individual’s entitlement to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system as is, in the circumstances, appropriate,

“mental disorder” has the meaning given in section 328 of the Mental Health (Care and Treatment) (Scotland) Act 2003.

(4) For the purposes of this section, advocacy services are independent if they are provided by a person other than the Scottish Ministers.
1H Income maximisation strategy

(1) The Scottish Ministers must, within one year of this section coming into force, publish a strategy designed to encourage individuals to apply for the social security assistance that they are entitled to be given.

(2) The strategy must set out—

(a) the types of assistance in relation to which the Scottish Ministers are to set a target for the uptake of the assistance,

(b) the target for the uptake of each type of assistance mentioned in paragraph (a),

(c) the target for the uptake in Scotland of all social security assistance.

(3) In preparing the strategy, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(4) The persons consulted must include individuals who have received social security assistance.

(5) As soon as practicable after the strategy has been published under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must lay a copy before the Scottish Parliament.

(6) In this section, “social security assistance” means—

(a) assistance given through the Scottish social security system,

(b) social security schemes other than those listed in exceptions 1 to 10 in Section F1 of Part 2 of schedule 5 of the Scotland Act 1998.

II Review of strategy

(1) The Scottish Ministers must review the strategy—

(a) within 2 years of its being published in accordance with section 1H(1),

(b) thereafter, within 5 years of the last review.

(2) Following a review, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) set out the progress made within the review period towards—

(i) meeting the target for each type of assistance mentioned in section 1H(2),

(ii) meeting the target for the uptake in Scotland of all social security assistance,

(b) publish—

(i) a revised strategy, or

(ii) a statement indicating that they consider that the strategy should not be revised.

(3) Subsections (2) to (4) of section 1H apply to a revised strategy as they apply to the strategy published under subsection (1) of that section.

(4) As soon as practicable after a revised strategy has been published under subsection (2)(b)(i), the Scottish Ministers must lay a copy before the Scottish Parliament.

(5) In this section, “review period” means—

(a) the period of 2 years beginning with the day on which the strategy under section 1H(1) is published,
(b) in respect of a revised strategy, the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the previous strategy was published.

Restriction of private-sector involvement

1J Restriction on private-sector involvement in assessments

1 An individual may not be required, in order to be given assistance under the Scottish social security system, to undergo an assessment of physical condition or mental health that is carried out by another individual who is not acting in the course of employment by a public body.

2 In subsection (1), “public body” means any of the following—

(a) a Minister of the Crown,
(b) a person established by an enactment,
(c) a body comprised solely of persons described by this subsection,
(d) a body corporate that has no members other than (either or both)—
   (i) persons described by this subsection,
   (ii) persons acting on behalf of persons described by this subsection.

3 Subsection (1) does not preclude its being made a requirement for being given assistance under the Scottish social security system that an individual be—

(a) in receipt of, or

(b) eligible or entitled to receive,

other assistance, despite entitlement to that other assistance depending on the fulfilment of a requirement that subsection (1) would preclude from being imposed in relation to assistance under the Scottish social security system.

4 In subsection (3), “other assistance” means assistance other than assistance under the Scottish social security system.

Charter

2 The Scottish social security charter

1 A Scottish social security charter is to be prepared, published and from time to time reviewed in accordance with sections 3 to 5.

2 The charter is to set out what should be expected—

(a) from the Scottish Ministers when—

   (i) developing social security policy, and
   (ii) exercising the functions conferred on them by this Part and Parts 2 and 3,

(b) from the individuals who apply for, and receive, assistance through the Scottish social security system.

3 The charter is to reflect the Scottish social security principles.
3 Preparing the first charter

(1) The Scottish Ministers are to prepare and publish the charter within 6 months of this section coming into force.

(2) In preparing the charter, the Scottish Ministers must consult such persons as they consider appropriate.

(2A) The Scottish Ministers must ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable, that the persons consulted include, in particular, a representative proportion of persons such as are mentioned in paragraphs (a), (b) and (d) of subsection (3) who have—
(a) a physical impairment,
(b) a mental impairment.

(3) The persons consulted must include—
(a) individuals who are in receipt of—
   (i) disability living allowance as provided for by sections 71 to 76 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
   (ii) personal independence payment as provided for by Part 4 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012,
   (iii) severe disablement allowance as provided for by sections 68 and 69 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
   (iv) attendance allowance as provided for by section 64 of that Act,
   (v) industrial injuries benefits within the meaning of Part 5 of that Act,
   (va) child benefit under section 141 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992,
   (vi) carer’s allowance as provided for by section 70 of that Act,
   (vii) payments under section 138 of that Act in respect of—
      (A) maternity expenses,
      (B) funeral expenses,
      (C) heating expenses,
(b) persons and organisations who work with or represent individuals living in households whose income is adversely affected, or whose expenditure is increased, because a member of the household has one or more protected characteristics (within the meaning of section 4 of the Equality Act 2010).

(4) For the purpose of subsection (2), it is immaterial that anything done by way of consultation was done before the Bill for this Act was passed or after that but before this section comes into force.

4 Publication of the charter

The Scottish Ministers are to make the charter publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate.
5 Reviewing the charter

(1) The Scottish Ministers must review the charter—
   (a) within 5 years of its being published in accordance with section 3(1), and
   (b) thereafter, within 5 years of the report of the last review being laid before the Parliament in accordance with subsection (4)(b).

(2) In carrying out a review, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
   (a) the Scottish Commission on Social Security, and
   (b) any other persons they consider appropriate.

(3) The persons consulted must include—
   (a) individuals who have received assistance through the Scottish social security system, and
   (b) persons and organisations who work with or represent individuals living in households whose income is adversely affected, or whose expenditure is increased, because a member of the household has one or more protected characteristics (within the meaning of section 4 of the Equality Act 2010).

(4) Following a review, the Scottish Ministers must—
   (a) decide whether or not to make any changes to the charter, and
   (b) lay before the Scottish Parliament a report setting out—
      (i) the consultation undertaken in carrying out the review,
      (ii) the reasons for their decision to make changes, or not make changes, to the charter, and
      (iii) (where applicable) a summary of the changes made.

5A Effect of the charter

(1) A court or tribunal in civil or criminal proceedings may take the charter into account when determining any question arising in the proceedings to which the charter is relevant.

(2) Breach of the charter does not of itself give rise to grounds for any legal action.

Accountability

6 Annual report

(1) As soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers are to—
   (a) lay before the Scottish Parliament, and
   (b) make publicly available by such means as they consider appropriate, a report on the performance of the Scottish social security system in that year.

(2) The report is to contain—
   (a) information about the performance of the Scottish social security system in that year.
(b) a description of what the Scottish Ministers have done in that year to meet the expectations of them set out in the Scottish social security charter,

(c) an assessment of how the Scottish social security system has affected the circumstances of persons living in households whose income is adversely affected, or whose expenditure is increased, because a member of the household has one or more protected characteristics (within the meaning of section 4 of the Equality Act 2010), and

(d) a description of the data for the purpose of monitoring equality of opportunity used in preparing the report.

(3) The first report under this section is to include a plan setting out the Scottish Ministers’ intentions to collect and publish data for the purpose of monitoring equality of opportunity where existing data sources are not sufficient for the preparation of the report.

6A Scottish Commission on Social Security

(1) The Scottish Commission on Social Security is established.

(2) The Commission is a body corporate.

(3) Schedule A1 makes further provision about the Commission.

6B Commission functions

(1) The Scottish Commission on Social Security has the following functions—

(a) to scrutinise legislative proposals in accordance with section 55A,

(b) to prepare and submit to the Scottish Ministers a report on any matter, relevant to social security, that the Ministers request the Commission to report on,

(c) to prepare and submit to the Scottish Parliament a report on any matter, relevant to social security, that the Commission is requested to report on by the Parliament after the Parliament has resolved that the request should be made,

(d) to prepare and submit to the Ministers and the Parliament, from time to time, a report containing—

(i) an assessment of the extent to which any or all of the expectations set out in the Scottish social security charter are being fulfilled, and

(ii) recommendations for improvement where the assessment is that those expectations are not being fulfilled,

(e) any functions the Ministers confer on the Commission by regulations.

(2) In performing any of the functions mentioned in subsection (1), the Commission may have regard to any relevant international human rights instruments (see also section 55A(4)).

(3) The Commission must make publicly available by such means as it considers appropriate any report that it prepares in pursuance of a function mentioned in subsection (1).

(4) The Commission must consider preparing a report under subsection (1)(d) if it receives evidence which suggests that expectations set out in the charter are frequently not being fulfilled.
(5) In subsection (2), “international human rights instruments”—

(a) means any international convention, treaty or other international instrument ratified by the United Kingdom, subject to—

(i) any amendments in force in relation to the United Kingdom for the time being, and

(b) includes, in particular, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession by General Assembly resolution 2200A (XXI) of 16 December 1966.

Interpretation

7 Meaning of “Scottish social security system”

In this Part, “Scottish social security system” means the system for giving individuals assistance—

(a) under Part 2, and

(b) by virtue of regulations made under Part 3.

PART 2

Giving of assistance by Scottish Ministers

CHAPTER 1

Assistance to be given according to determination of entitlement

8 Duty to give assistance

The Scottish Ministers must give an individual whatever assistance of a type described in Chapter 2 the individual is entitled to be given under a determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance.

9 Meaning of “determination of entitlement”

(1) References in this Part to a determination of an individual’s entitlement to assistance are to a determination made—

(a) by the Scottish Ministers—

(i) under section 19, or

(ii) (following a request for a re-determination) under section 24,

(b) by the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland—

(i) under section 29 in an appeal against a determination made by the Scottish Ministers, or

(ii) (subsequent to such an appeal) under its Tribunals Act powers,

(c) by the Upper Tribunal for Scotland under its Tribunals Act powers (subsequent to an appeal against, or following a review of, a decision of the First-tier Tribunal),
(d) by the Court of Session under its Tribunals Act powers (in an appeal against a decision of the Upper Tribunal), or

(e) by the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom—

(i) in an appeal under section 40 of the Court of Session Act 1988 against a decision of the Court of Session, or

(ii) on a reference made by the Court of Session under schedule 6 of the Scotland Act 1998.

(2) In this section, “Tribunals Act powers” means powers under Part 6 (review or appeal of decisions) of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014.

10 Later determination supersedes earlier

(1) The latest determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance in respect of a given period or event supersedes any earlier determination insofar as it deals with the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the same period or event.

(2) Accordingly the individual is not entitled, and is not to become entitled, to be given any assistance in respect of that period or event by the earlier determination insofar as it has been superseded.

the individual cannot make another application for that type of assistance in respect of the period or event.

(4) Despite subsection (3), an individual may make another application for a particular type of assistance in respect of an event if the latest determination of the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the event states that the individual may make another application.

21 Withdrawal of application

(1) An individual who has made an application for assistance may request that the Scottish Ministers disregard it.

(2) If an individual requests that an application be disregarded—

(a) the Scottish Ministers are not to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to any type of assistance on the basis of the application, and

(b) subsection (2C).

(2B) The condition referred to in subsection (2A)(a) is satisfied if the request is made in such form as the Scottish Ministers require.

(2C) The condition referred to in subsection (2A)(b) is satisfied if—

(a) the request is made before the end of the period prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations, or
(b) in a case where the request is made after that period has ended—

(i) the individual has a good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner (see section 23A), and
(ii) the request is made before the end of the day that falls one year after the day on which the individual is informed (in accordance with section 22) of the determination.

(3) The Scottish Ministers must publicise any requirements for the time being set under subsection (2B).

Late request for re-determination

(1) It is for—

(a) the Scottish Ministers, or
(b) on appeal under subsection (3), the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland, to decide whether, for the purpose of section 23(2C)(b), an individual has a good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner.

(2) Having made a decision under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual concerned—

(a) of the decision, and

(b) if the decision is that the individual has no good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner, of—

(i) the reasons for the decision, and

(ii) the individual’s right to appeal under subsection (3).

(3) An individual may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a decision by the Scottish Ministers that the individual has no good reason for not requesting a re-determination sooner.

(4) An appeal under subsection (3)—

(a) may be made without the First-tier Tribunal’s permission within 31 days of the individual being informed (in accordance with subsection (2)) of the Scottish Ministers’ decision,

(b) may be made more than 31 days after the individual is so informed only with the First-tier Tribunal’s permission,

(c) may not be made after the end of the day that falls one year after the day on which the individual is so informed.

(5) The First-tier Tribunal may give permission under subsection (4)(b) for an appeal to be made only if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the appeal not having been made sooner.

(6) A decision by the First-tier Tribunal about—

(a) the outcome of an appeal under subsection (3), or

(b) whether to give permission under subsection (4)(b) for an appeal to be made, is final.

(7) Accordingly (and without prejudice to the generality of subsection (6)), any such decision by the First-tier Tribunal may be neither—

(a) reviewed under section 43 of the Tribunals (Scotland) Act 2014, nor

(b) appealed against under section 46 of that Act.

24 Duty to re-determine

(1) On being requested under section 23 to re-determine an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to that type of assistance.

(2) The Scottish Ministers must aim to make the determination within the period allowed for re-determination.

(3) If the Scottish Ministers fail to make the determination within the period allowed for re-determination—

(a) their duty to make the determination ends (but they may still make it), and
(b) section 26 applies.

(4) If the Scottish Ministers make the determination (whether or not within the period allowed for re-determination), section 25 applies.

(5) The period allowed for re-determination is to be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers in regulations.

(6) The reference in subsection (1) to a request under section 23 is to a request that is valid according to subsection (2A) of that section.

25 Notice of re-determination

Having made a determination under section 24 of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) inform the individual of—

(i) the determination,

(ii) the reasons for it, and

(iii) the individual’s right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal under section 27 against the determination,

(b) provide the individual with a form that the individual can complete and submit to the Scottish Ministers in order to bring an appeal against the determination.

26 Notice where re-determination not made timeously

Having failed to make a determination under section 24 of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance within the period allowed for re-determination, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) inform the individual—

(i) that the individual’s request for a re-determination has not been dealt with within the period allowed, and

(ii) that the individual therefore has the right to appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against the determination under section 19 which prompted the request for a re-determination,

(b) provide the individual with a form that the individual can complete and submit to the Scottish Ministers in order to bring an appeal against the determination.

27 Right to appeal to First-tier Tribunal

(1) An individual may appeal to the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland—

(a) against a determination under section 24 of the individual’s entitlement to assistance, or

(b) in a case where subsection (2) applies, against the determination under section 19 referred to in that subsection.
27A  Initiating an appeal

(1) In order to bring an appeal under section 27 against a determination, an individual must submit to the Scottish Ministers the form provided under section 25 or (as the case may be) 26 in relation to the determination.

(2) On receiving a form that they provided under section 25 or 26, the Scottish Ministers must send—

(a) the form, and

(b) the information held by them that they used to make the determination in question,

10 to the First-tier Tribunal.

(3) Having complied with subsection (2), the Scottish Ministers must inform the individual to whom the determination in question relates that they have done so.

(4) In this section, references to a form include a copy of a form.

(5) For the avoidance of doubt, the form that the Scottish Ministers provide under section 25 or 26 need not be a physical form.

(6) Scottish Tribunal Rules providing for the form and manner in which an appeal under section 27 is to be brought may not displace the effect of subsection (1), but this section is otherwise without prejudice to what may be provided under any power to make Scottish Tribunal Rules.

28  Time for appeal

(1) An appeal under section 27—

(a) may be brought without the First-tier Tribunal’s permission if an appeal application is made within the period of 31 days beginning with the day the relevant event occurred,

(b) may be brought only with the First-tier Tribunal’s permission if an appeal application is made after the period mentioned in paragraph (a),

(c) may not be brought if an appeal application has not been made within the period of one year beginning with the day the relevant event occurred.

30

(2) In subsection (1)—

(a) “the relevant event” means—

(i) in the case of an appeal against a determination under section 24, the individual to whom the determination relates being informed of it in accordance with section 25,
(ii) in the case of an appeal against a determination under section 19, the individual to whom the determination relates being informed (in accordance with section 26) that the individual has the right to appeal against it,

(b) an appeal application is made when a form, that relates to the determination in question and has been completed to the extent that Scottish Tribunal Rules require, is received by the Scottish Ministers having been submitted in accordance with section 27A(1).

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may give permission under subsection (1)(b) for an appeal to be brought only if it is satisfied that there is a good reason for the application not having been made sooner.

29 First-tier Tribunal’s power to determine entitlement

In an appeal under section 27 against a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance, the First-tier Tribunal may—

(a) uphold the determination, or

(b) make its own determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

Presumption about when information is received

29A Presumption for purposes of sections 23, 23A and 28

(1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to the references in sections 23, 23A and 28 to someone being informed of something by the Scottish Ministers in accordance with a provision of this Act.

(2) Where, in order to fulfil their duty to inform an individual of something, the Scottish Ministers send information—

(a) through the postal service to the last known address the Scottish Ministers have for the individual, or

(b) by email to the email address most recently provided to the Scottish Ministers by the individual for the purposes of this Act, the individual is to be taken to have received the information 48 hours after it is sent by the Scottish Ministers unless the contrary is shown.

Obtaining information to make determination

30 Obligation to provide information on request

(1) When—

(a) the Scottish Ministers are determining an individual’s entitlement to assistance (whether under section 19 or 24), and

(b) they require further information in order to satisfy themselves about any matter material to the making of the determination, they may request that the individual provide them with the information within such period as they specify.

(2) If the individual fails to provide the requested information by the end of the specified period the Scottish Ministers may, without further consideration, proceed to make the determination on the basis that the individual does not satisfy the eligibility rules prescribed in the applicable regulations (see section 33).

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, the information which the Scottish Ministers may request an individual to provide under subsection (1) includes the results of an assessment, including one which the individual has not undergone at the time the request is made.

31 Duty to notify change of circumstances

(1) The Scottish Ministers may place a duty to notify them about a change in circumstances on a person to whom subsection (3), (3A) or (4) applies.

(2) The Scottish Ministers place a duty under subsection (1) on a person by informing the person—
   (a) of the changes in circumstances which the person has a duty to notify them about,
   (b) of the way in which the person is to notify them, and
   (c) that failing to notify them about a change in any of those circumstances in that way may be an offence under section 40.

(3) This subsection applies to an individual who is to be given assistance under section 8 under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

(3A) This subsection applies to a person acting on behalf of an individual to whom subsection (3) applies in relation any application for the assistance or the determination of the individual’s entitlement.

(4) This subsection applies to a person to whom payments are to be made under section 8 by way of assistance to another person under a determination made on the basis that that other person has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

32 Lifting of duty to notify change of circumstances

(1) A duty to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change of circumstances placed on a person under section 31 ceases to apply when—
   (a) it is lifted under subsection (2), or
   (b) it stops being the case that a change in any of the circumstances to which the duty relates can affect someone’s entitlement to be given assistance under section 8.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may lift a duty placed on a person under section 31 by informing the person that the duty is lifted.

(3) Under subsection (2), the Scottish Ministers may lift a duty as it relates to some or all of the changes in circumstances which the person has a duty to notify them about.
32A Appointment of person to act on behalf of individual

(1) The Scottish Ministers may appoint a person (an “appointee”)—
   (a) to act on behalf of an individual in connection with the determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance under section 8, and
   (b) to receive such assistance on the individual’s behalf.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may only appoint an appointee if it appears to them that either subsection (3) or (4) applies.

(3) This subsection applies if—
   (a) the individual is deceased, and
   (b) there is no executor appointed on the individual’s estate.

(4) This subsection applies if, in relation to the matters mentioned in subsection (1)—
   (a) the individual is incapable within the meaning of the Adults with Incapacity
       (Scotland) Act 2000,
   (b) there is no guardian acting or appointed under that Act,
   (c) the individual’s estate is not being administered by a judicial factor, and
   (d) there is no other person who has authority to act on behalf of the individual and is willing to do so.

(5) An individual who is under 16 years may not be appointed as an appointee.

(6) Where an appointee is appointed in relation to an individual—
   (a) the appointee can do anything that the individual could do in connection with the determination of the individual’s entitlement to assistance (including making an application for assistance),
   (b) the Scottish Ministers may request that the appointee provide them with information that they may otherwise request the individual to provide under section 30 (and sections 32(2) and (3) apply to that request as they apply to a request made to the individual),
   (c) any information that would be given to the individual under or by virtue of this Part must be given to the appointee instead.

(7) The Scottish Ministers may terminate an appointment under this section at any time.

Support during discussions and assessments

32B Right to support

(1) The Scottish Ministers must comply with an individual’s wish to have another person
    (“a supporter”) present during any discussion or assessment relating to the individual’s entitlement to a type of assistance described in Chapter 2, unless the wish is unreasonable.

(2) The Scottish Ministers’ duty under subsection (1) includes ensuring that any person acting on their behalf complies with such a wish, unless the wish is unreasonable.
(3) The role of a supporter is to support the individual in question during the discussion or (as the case may be) assessment, and includes making representations on the individual’s behalf.

(4) Nothing in this section is to be read as requiring the Scottish Ministers to provide or pay for a supporter.

Further provision about determining entitlement

33 Decisions comprising determination

(1) A determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance consists of—

(a) a decision about whether or not the eligibility rules prescribed in the applicable regulations are satisfied in the individual’s case,

(b) if those rules are satisfied, a decision (taken in accordance with the applicable regulations) about what assistance of the type in question the individual is entitled to be given,

(c) if the determination is to be made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to the type of assistance in question (see section 34), a decision about what assistance of the type in question the determination is to entitle the individual to be given in the future, and

(d) if the determination is of an individual’s entitlement to assistance in respect of an event, a decision about whether the individual’s application for assistance in respect of the event is possibly premature.

(1A) If it is decided under subsection (1)(d) that an individual’s application for assistance in respect of an event is possibly premature, the determination must include a statement that the individual may make another application for assistance in respect of the event.

(1B) An individual’s application for assistance in respect of an event is possibly premature for the purpose of subsection (1)(d) if—

(a) the decision under subsection (1)(a) is that the eligibility rules prescribed in the applicable regulations are not satisfied in the individual’s case, and

(b) it is possible that circumstances may change so that, in relation to the event in question, those rules will be satisfied in the individual’s case.

(2) In this section, “the applicable regulations” means the regulations made under the section in Chapter 2 that describes the type of assistance in question.

34 Determination on basis of ongoing entitlement

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations—

(a) provide that a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a specified type of assistance is to be made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement to that type of assistance (either indefinitely or for a duration specified in the regulations), and

(b) provide for exceptions to any provision made by virtue of paragraph (a).
(2) Regulations making provision by virtue of subsection (1)(a) are also to—

(a) prescribe the time, or times, at which an individual is to become entitled to be given assistance under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement, and

(b) provide that a decision about what assistance the individual is to become entitled to be given under such a determination in respect of any future period is to be taken in accordance with the applicable regulations on the strength of such assumptions as are specified.

(3) In this section—

“the applicable regulations” means the regulations made under the section in Chapter 2 that describes the type of assistance in question, “specified” means specified by regulations under this section.

35 Determination without application

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that, in such circumstances as the regulations specify, the Scottish Ministers are to make a determination of an individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance without receiving an application.

(2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about the information that is to be used, and the assumptions that are to be made, in making a determination when required to do so by regulations under subsection (1).

CHAPTER 4

RECOVERY OF ASSISTANCE GIVEN IN ERROR

36 Liability

(1) An individual is liable to pay the Scottish Ministers the value of any assistance that was given to the individual due to an error in the performance of a function conferred by virtue of this Part (but see section 36A).

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the individual’s liability under subsection (1) is limited to the difference in value between—

(a) the assistance that was given, and

(b) the assistance (if any) that would have been given had the error not been made.

(3) If the assistance was given in a form other than money, its value for the purposes of this section is what giving it cost the Scottish Ministers (excluding any administration costs).

(4) In this section and section 36A—

(a) references to an error include a decision under section 33(1) being made—

(i) wrongly, or

(ii) correctly but on the basis of—

(A) incorrect information, or

(B) an assumption which proves to be wrong,
(b) references to giving assistance in error include giving assistance as a result of an error of the kind described in paragraph (a).

36A Exclusion from overpayment liability

(1) An individual has no liability under section 36(1) in respect of assistance given in error if the error is neither—

(a) the individual’s fault, nor

(b) the kind of error that an individual could reasonably be expected to notice.

(2) For the purpose of this section, an error is an individual’s fault if it is caused or contributed to by the individual—

(a) providing false or misleading information,

(b) failing to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change in circumstances in breach of a duty to do so under section 31, or

(c) causing another person to do either of those things.

(3) In considering whether an error is of a kind that an individual could reasonably be expected to notice, the following are amongst the matters to which regard is to be had—

(a) the extent to which the value of the assistance given in error exceeds the value of the assistance that would have been given (if any) had the error not been made,

(b) whether any information given to the individual by the Scottish Ministers prior to, or immediately after, the assistance being given would have alerted a reasonable person to the fact that a decision had been, or was to be, made on the basis of incorrect information or a wrong assumption.

(4) In—

(a) subsection (2)(a), the reference to providing information includes making a statement,

(b) subsection (3)(b), the reference to information given to the individual by the Scottish Ministers does not include information explaining why the Ministers consider the assistance to have been given in error.

37 Consideration for debtor’s circumstances

(1) This section applies to decisions of the Scottish Ministers about—

(a) whether to seek to recover money owed under section 36, and

(b) the method by which money owed under that section is to be recovered.

(2) In making a decision to which this section applies, the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the financial circumstances of the individual who owes the money (so far as those circumstances are known to the Ministers).

38 Prescription of liability

(1) Schedule 1 (obligations affected by prescriptive period of five years) of the Prescription and Limitation (Scotland) Act 1973 is amended as follows.
(2) After paragraph 1(b) insert—

“(ba) to any obligation to make payment to the Scottish Ministers arising from section 36 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018.”.

38A Exclusion of other rights of recovery

(1) An individual given assistance in error has no non-statutory obligation based on redress of unjustified enrichment to pay the value of that assistance to the Scottish Ministers.

(2) In subsection (1)—

(a) “non-statutory obligation” means an obligation that arises from a rule of law rather than an enactment,

(b) the reference to assistance being given in error is to be construed in accordance with section 36(4).

38B Liability of deceased’s estate

(1) The value of funeral expense assistance given in connection with an individual’s funeral is to be treated as a funeral expense that the individual’s estate is liable to pay the Scottish Ministers.

(2) If the assistance was given in a form other than money, its value for the purposes of this section is what giving it cost the Scottish Ministers (excluding any administration costs).

CHAPTER 5

Offences and investigations

Offences

39 Offence of trying to obtain assistance by deceit

(1) A person commits an offence if—

(a) the person provides, or causes another person to provide, information which is false or misleading, and

(b) the person does so with the intention of causing an individual to be given assistance under section 8 which would not otherwise be given.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), providing information includes making a statement.

(3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months,

(b) the person does not have a reasonable excuse for failing to do so, and

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), a change in circumstances to which this subsection applies is a change—

(a) which the person has a duty under section 31 to notify the Scottish Ministers about, and

(b) which would, under a determination of an individual’s entitlement, result in the individual ceasing to be entitled to assistance, or becoming entitled to less assistance.

(3) A person is not to be regarded as having notified a change in circumstances for the purpose of subsection (1)(a) unless the person notified the Scottish Ministers about it in the way the Ministers informed the person that such notification is to be given (see section 31(2)(b)).

(4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months,

41 Offence of causing a failure to notify

(1) A person commits an offence if—

(a) the person causes another person to fail to notify the Scottish Ministers about a change in circumstances to which subsection (2) applies as soon as reasonably practicable after it occurs, and

(b) the person knew or ought to have known that—

(i) the change might result in an individual ceasing to be entitled to assistance, or becoming entitled to less assistance, and
(ii) the other person has a duty under section 31 to notify the Scottish Ministers about the change.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1)(a), a change in circumstances to which this subsection applies is a change which would, under a determination of an individual’s entitlement, result in the individual ceasing to be entitled to assistance, or becoming entitled to less assistance.

(3) A person is not to be regarded as having notified a change in circumstances for the purpose of subsection (1)(a) unless the person notified the Scottish Ministers about it in the way the Ministers informed the person that such notification is to be given (see section 31(2)(b)).

(4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—

(a) on summary conviction, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months,

(ii) a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum, or

(iii) both,

(b) on conviction on indictment, to—

(i) imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years,

(ii) a fine, or

(iii) both.

42 Individual culpability for offending by an organisation

(1) Subsection (2) applies where—

(a) an offence under this Act or any regulations made under it is committed by a relevant organisation, and

(b) the commission of the offence involves the connivance or consent of, or is attributable to the neglect of—

(i) a responsible official of the organisation, or

(ii) an individual purporting to act in the capacity of a responsible official.

(2) The responsible official (or, as the case may be, the individual purporting to act in that capacity), as well as the organisation, commits the offence.

5  43 Power to make provision about investigations

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision about the investigation of offences under this Act.

(2) Regulations under subsection (1) may, in particular—

(a) confer powers to—

(i) enter and search premises (other than dwelling-houses), and
(ii) seize anything relevant to the investigation which is found on the premises,

(b) create offences relating to—

(7) Subsections (2) to (6) apply in relation to a revised code of practice as they apply in relation to the first published code of practice.
Social Security (Scotland) Bill
Part 2—Giving of assistance by Scottish Ministers
Chapter 6—Uprating for inflation

CHAPTER 6
UPRATING FOR INFLATION

44A Duty to consider effects of inflation

(1) Before the end of each financial year, the Scottish Ministers must—

(a) calculate the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure,
(b) prepare a report that complies with subsection (2),
(c) lay a copy of the report before the Scottish Parliament, and
(d) make the report publicly available by such means as the Ministers consider appropriate.

(2) A report prepared under subsection (1)(b) complies with this subsection if it—

(a) states what the Scottish Ministers have most recently calculated to be the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure,
(b) explains how the Ministers calculated the inflation-adjusted levels, and
(c) states what (if anything) the Ministers have done, or intend to do, in light of their calculations and their reasons for that decision.

(3) In this section, “relevant figure” means a figure prescribed in regulations under any section in Chapter 2 as the value, or part of the value, of the assistance that is to be given to an individual.

(4) The inflation-adjusted level of a figure prescribed in regulations is to be calculated for the purposes of this Chapter as follows—

\[ f \times \left(1 + \frac{i}{100}\right) \]

where—

- \( f \) is the figure prescribed, and
- \( i \) is the number of percentage points which the Scottish Ministers consider reflects the change in the general level of relevant prices since a copy of a report was last laid before the Scottish Parliament under subsection (1)(c).

(5) It is for the Scottish Ministers to decide what prices are “relevant prices” in terms of subsection (4).

(6) For the purposes of preparing the first report under subsection (1)(b), the reference in subsection (4) to the last time a copy of a report was laid before the Scottish Parliament is to be read as a reference to the date on which the figure in question was prescribed.

44B Duty to uprate carer’s, disability and employment-injury assistance

(1) Before the end of each financial year, having calculated in accordance with section 43A the inflation-adjusted level of each relevant figure prescribed in—

(a) the carer’s assistance regulations,
(b) the disability assistance regulations, and
(b) the employment-injury assistance regulations,
the Scottish Ministers must bring forward legislation to replace any relevant figure prescribed in those regulations which is, in their opinion, materially below its inflation-adjusted level with a figure of at least that level (subject to any rounding they think appropriate).

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), bringing forward legislation means laying before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing carer’s assistance regulations, disability assistance regulations and employment-injury assistance regulations.

(3) If the Scottish Parliament approves a draft instrument laid before it by the Scottish Ministers in fulfilment of their duty under subsection (1), the Ministers must make the regulations contained in the draft instrument.

(4) In this section—
“carer’s assistance regulations” means regulations under section 11,
“disability assistance regulations” means regulations under section 14,
“employment-injury assistance regulations” means regulations under section 16,
“relevant figure” is to be construed in accordance with section 43A(3).

PART 3
SUPPLEMENTING ASSISTANCE UNDER OTHER ENACTMENTS
Top up of reserved benefits

45 Power to provide for top up

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide for financial assistance to be given to an individual who—
(a) is entitled to a reserved benefit, and
(b) appears to the Scottish Ministers to require financial assistance (in addition to any amount the individual receives by way of reserved benefit) for the purpose, or one of the purposes, for which the benefit is being provided.

(2) The power conferred by subsection (1) includes the power to make provision about—
(a) determining entitlement (including specifying further eligibility rules that are to be used to determine whether an individual is entitled to the assistance),
(b) the amount of assistance,
(c) applications for assistance,
(d) obtaining information,
(e) appeals,
(f) assistance given in error.

(3) In this section and section 46, “reserved benefit” means a benefit which is to any extent a reserved matter within the meaning of schedule 5 of the Scotland Act 1998.
46 Restrictions on power

Carer’s allowance: temporary provision

47 Carer’s allowance supplement

Power to modify section 49

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make whatever amendment to section 49 they think appropriate in consequence of—
   (a) an enactment mentioned in that section being amended, repealed or revoked, or

SCHEDULE 1

(introduced by section 11)

CARER’S ASSISTANCE REGULATIONS

PART 1

ELIGIBILITY

ELIGIBILITY IS TO DEPEND ON BEING OR HAVING BEEN A CARER

1 (1) The regulations must be framed so that (subject to any provision of the kind described in paragraph 2) an individual’s eligibility in respect of a given period depends on the individual having provided regular and substantial care during that period to another individual to whom a disability benefit is normally payable.

30 (2) The regulations—

(a) are to set out the circumstances in which an individual is to be regarded as having provided regular and substantial care to another individual during a period, and

(b) may, in particular, do so by reference to whether or not the number of hours of care provided during the period exceeds (or is deemed to exceed) a threshold specified in the regulations.
(3) In sub-paragraph (1), “disability benefit” has the meaning given in the interpretation provision in Section F1 of Part 2 of schedule 5 of the Scotland Act 1998.

2 (1) The regulations may be framed so that, despite the criterion described in paragraph 1(1) not being fulfilled in relation to a given period, an individual may nevertheless be eligible in respect of that period.

(2) Where the regulations allow an individual to be eligible in respect of a period in relation to which the criterion described in paragraph 1(1) is not fulfilled, they must be framed so that the individual’s eligibility depends on the individual—

(a) having at some time provided care to another individual who has a disability, and

(b) as a result of doing so, having received—

(i) carer’s assistance,

(ii) carer’s allowance, or

(iii) invalid care allowance.

(3) In sub-paragraph (2)(b), “carer’s allowance” and “invalid care allowance” both mean an allowance payable under section 70 of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992.

CHAPTER 2

FURTHER CRITERIA

Carer’s other activities

3 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on—

(a) whether or not the individual is in—

(i) employment, or

(ii) education,

(b) the length of time the individual spends over a given period in—

(i) employment, or

(ii) education.

Multiple carers

4 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on being the individual (or one of the individuals) selected through a process set out in the regulations in a case where more than one individual would otherwise be eligible as a result of providing care to the same cared-for person during a given period.

Residence and presence

5 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on either or both—

(a) the individual, and

(b) the cared-for person, being resident and present in a particular place.
Age

6 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on the age of either or both—
   (a) the individual, and
   (b) the cared-for person.

Financial circumstances

7 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on the individual’s financial circumstances.

Receipt of, or eligibility for, other types of State assistance

8 The regulations may make an individual’s eligibility depend on the individual—
   (a) being, or not being, in receipt of another type of assistance (whether under this Act or another enactment),
   (b) being, or not being, eligible or entitled to receive such assistance.

Application within specified period

9 The regulations may provide that an individual ceases to be eligible in respect of a given period unless, by a deadline specified in the regulations—
   (a) the individual has applied for carer’s assistance in respect of the period, or
   (b) the Scottish Ministers have become required to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to carer’s assistance in respect of the period by regulations under section 35.

PART 2

ASSISTANCE TO BE GIVEN

Meeting liabilities

10 The regulations may provide for the carer’s assistance that is to be given to an individual to be given (in whole or in part) by way of—
   (a) payment to another person in order to meet, or contribute towards meeting, any liability the individual has to that person,
   (b) deduction from any liability the individual has to the Scottish Ministers under section 36.

Restriction on giving assistance in a form other than money

(b) being, or not being, eligible or entitled to receive such assistance.

Application within specified period

8 The regulations may provide that an individual ceases to be eligible in respect of a given period unless, by a deadline specified in the regulations—

30 (a) the individual has applied for housing assistance in respect of the period, or

(b) the Scottish Ministers have become required to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement to housing assistance in respect of the period by regulations under section 35.
PART 2

CHAPTER 1
VALUE

Cases where paragraph 1(2) conditions met

9 (1) The regulations must provide for the value of housing assistance to be given in a case to which this paragraph applies to be the amount described in sub-paragraph (3).

(2) This paragraph applies to a case in which an individual is entitled to housing assistance in respect of a given period by virtue of meeting the conditions described in paragraph 1(2).

(3) The amount referred to in sub-paragraph (1) is the lower of—

(a) the difference between—

(i) the amount under section 11 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 included in the calculation of the individual’s universal credit award for the period in question, and

(ii) the amount that would have been included under that section in the calculation were it not for the regulations referred to in paragraph 1(2), or

(b) the amount by which the value of the assistance to which the individual is entitled from the Secretary of State in respect of the period in question is reduced in accordance with regulations under section 96 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012.

Cases where paragraph 1(2) conditions not met

10 In a case to which paragraph 9 does not apply, the regulations may make the value of housing assistance that is to be given to an individual depend on—

(a) the age of either or both—

(i) the individual, and

(ii) anyone who lives with the individual,

(b) the financial circumstances of either or both—

(i) the individual, and

(ii) anyone who lives with the individual.

CHAPTER 2
FORM

Meeting liabilities

11 The regulations may provide for housing assistance that is to be given to an individual to be given (in whole or in part) by way of—

(a) payment to another person in order to meet, or contribute towards meeting, any liability the individual has to that person,
(b) deduction from any liability the individual has to the Scottish Ministers under section 36.

Restriction on giving assistance in a form other than money

12 (1) The regulations may allow housing assistance to be given to an individual in a form other than money only if the individual (or a person acting on the individual’s behalf) has agreed to the assistance being given in that form.

(2) If the regulations include provision of the kind mentioned in sub-paragraph (1), they must allow an individual (or a person acting on the individual’s behalf) to withdraw agreement to being given housing assistance in a form other than money at any time.

(3) Despite sub-paragraph (1), the regulations may provide for housing assistance to be given (in whole or in part) by way of deduction, at a reasonable level, from any liability the individual has to the Scottish Ministers under section 36 if the individual has unreasonably refused to agree to the assistance being given in that form.

(4) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (3), “reasonable level” means a level that is reasonable having regard to the financial circumstances of the individual.

PART 3

FINAL PROVISIONS

Generality of enabling power unaffected

13 Nothing in this schedule, apart from the following provisions, is to be taken to limit what may be prescribed in the regulations—

(a) Chapter 1 of Part 1,
(b) in Part 2, paragraphs 9 and 12.

Interpretation

14 In this schedule (unless stated otherwise)—

“eligibility” means eligibility for housing assistance and “eligible” means eligible for housing assistance,

“the regulations” means regulations under section 17A(2).

SCHEDULE 9

(introduced by section 18)

SHORT-TERM ASSISTANCE REGULATIONS

PART 1

ELIGIBILITY

Entitlement to other assistance being reviewed

1 (1) The regulations must be framed so that an individual is eligible for short-term assistance if—

(a) the individual is, or was, entitled to a particular type of assistance (other than short-term assistance) under a determination made on the basis that the individual has ongoing entitlement,
(b) that determination has been superseded by a determination under section 19 with the result that the individual—
   (i) is no longer entitled to the type of assistance in question, or
   (ii) is entitled to less assistance of the type in question,
   (c) the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question is under review, and
   (d) any further eligibility rules prescribed in the regulations are satisfied in the individual’s case.

(2) An individual’s entitlement to a particular type of assistance is under review within the meaning of sub-paragraph (1)(c) if—
   (a) the individual has, under section 23, requested a re-determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question and—
      (i) the Scottish Ministers have yet to make a determination of the individual’s entitlement under section 24, and
      (ii) the individual has not, since requesting the re-determination, made an appeal to the First-tier Tribunal against a determination of the individual’s entitlement, or
   (b) the individual has, under section 27, appealed to the First-tier Tribunal against a determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question and the First-tier Tribunal has yet to make a decision under section 29, or
   (c) the First-tier Tribunal is considering, under section 28(1)(b), whether to give permission for the individual to bring an appeal against a determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance in question.

PART 2
ASSISTANCE TO BE GIVEN

Value and form of assistance where entitlement to other assistance under review

2 (1) This paragraph applies to any case in which an individual is eligible for short-term assistance by virtue of provision made in accordance with paragraph 1(1).

(2) In this paragraph, “the superseded determination” means the determination that has been superseded with one of the results mentioned in paragraph 1(1)(b), as a consequence of which the individual in question is eligible for short-term assistance.

(3) In relation to a case to which this paragraph applies, the regulations must provide for the value of the short-term assistance given to an individual in respect of any period to be equal to—

where—

\( V1 \) is the value of the assistance that the individual would have been given in respect of the period under the superseded determination had it not been superseded, and
V2 is the value of the assistance that the individual is to be given in respect of the period under what is, at the time the individual becomes eligible for short-term assistance in respect of the period, the most recent determination of the individual’s entitlement to the type of assistance to which the superseded determination relates.

(4) In relation to a case to which this paragraph applies, the regulations must provide for the rules regarding the form in which short-term assistance is given to an individual to be the same as the rules governing the form in which the type of assistance to which the superseded determination relates may be given.

PART 3
FINAL PROVISIONS

Generality of enabling power unaffected

3 Nothing in this schedule is to be taken to preclude the regulations from providing for an individual to be eligible for short-term assistance in circumstances other than those described in paragraph 1.
